florists

flowers and jules

Established by Jules Hoogeveen in 2014, Flowers and Jules provides custom designed wedding florals for clients and venues, focusing on the season. Jules lives on three acres north of Whistler, BC, where she grows many types of seasonal flowers, including garden roses, sweet peas, dahlia's, eucalyptus and more. Using as much organic product from her own garden as possible, arrangements are then rounded out with outstanding flowers chosen from the best sources. Passionate about both quality and design, Jules strives to tell a story with her flowers. To feel the season and see the elegant romance that blooms and complements a special celebration. Jules is known for her adaptive designs, working with many colour palettes and themes. Jules also has a collection of rental arbors and candles available, adding those final details to every event.

weddings with billies

Billies House is a stunning, local boutique, well known to anyone living or visiting the Sea to Sky Corridor. Known for our sophisticated and breathtaking floral arrangements, professionally designed and crafted by our experienced floral artists. Pride of ownership is prominent as you can see our work is perfection. We accommodate on any scale including intimate elopements to the most grand and impressive ceremony. We take great pride in our community and ensure that we source most, if not all, florals, greenery and other products from local artisans, growers and manufactures. We are very conscious of our environmental impact and do our best to reduce as much as possible and in the most ethical manner. We are happy to discuss the ways that we will incorporate these best practices into your special day.

celebrate by carlee

I've always believed that the heart of a wedding is the ceremony, the moment time freezes and everything becomes still and eyes lock, and a promise swirls into life, voiced, witnessed, answered. It gets me every time. I consider it an honour to hear your story of finding each other, and to help craft a ceremony that celebrates your remarkable cosmic collision - your connection. I am a certified Life-Cycle Wedding Celebrant® and I look forward to working with you to make your moment, that declaration, woven and wonderful and powerful and true.

whistler wedding celebrant

I am the Whistler Wedding Celebrant, Linda McGaw. As a certified Lifecycle Celebrant™ and an ordained minister with the Canadian International Metaphysical Ministry, I am authorized by the Province to conduct wedding ceremonies. I specialize in non-denominational, inter-denominational, and inter-faith ceremonies; I am open to all dialogue on ceremony content. I pour my heart and soul into writing warm, heartfelt, unforgettable ceremonies. My fee includes a free consultation, ceremony script, unlimited leadership and counselling on selection of readings etc, attendance at a rehearsal, registration of marriage license, and a keepsake copy of the ceremony. The lyrical nature of my ceremonies is perfectly suited to the beautiful and poetical lakeside setting of Nita Lake Lodge.

gadbois photography

My name is Pascale and I am the eye, the smile and the joie de vivre behind Gadbois Photography. I am a lover of life, but more importantly, a lover of love. I capture every kind of love, because what I know to be true, is that, LOVE is LOVE. I believe that life flies by, and that my superpower, is my ability to freeze a moment in time forever. I am a story-teller. Over the past 6 years, the majority of weddings, big & small, that I have had the honour of capturing, have been at the stunning Nita Lake Lodge in collaboration with their amazing team, never more so than recently, with the pandemic adjusting each wedding to safely move forward within our given guidelines. It is a privilege to earn the trust of each of my couples, and see them blossom and shine, through my photography.
