COZUMEL

On Mexico's biggest and most beautiful island, travelers can experience turquoise waters, jungle treks, and the cultural riches of Cedral, San Gervasio like the goddess Ixchel, the carnival, and sporting events. On the four-hour Cielo Excursion at The Explorean Cozumel, guests get to snorkel at the second-largest barrier reef in the world with breathtaking colorful fish, manta rays, and occasional sea turtles.

THE EXPLOREAN COZUMEL ALL INCLUSIVE

Guests are later taken to the Starry Sky—a famous swimming spot characterized by “a sky full of sea stars” where guests can dive in to admire the sea stars up close. The day’s final stop takes travelers to the unmissable Cielito, an extraordinary, pristine white-sand beach with crystalline waters full of sea stars.

Must go DESTINATIONS

CHETUMAL

Near Chetumal, at The Explorean Kohunlich, nature lovers will feel right at home during the Nocturnal Kayak Tour. Guests will enjoy navigating through the incredible Chakambakan Lagoon, which was created by rainwater and is illuminated by the starry, southern night sky of Quintana Roo. Guests who journey through this natural beauty will learn about all the different types of wildlife in the area, including the Moreletti crocodile, Howley and Spider monkeys, toucans, woodpeckers, and many more. Lucky guests might even get a chance to see these creatures hiding out in the stunning Puctec trees surrounding the lagoon.

SAN LUIS POTOSÍ

Fiesta Americana San Luis Potosí is ideally located near Tangamanga Park—the second-largest urban park in Mexico and the most diverse and important in the city. Visitors can bike around the perimeter and appreciate the varied and majestic flora and fauna. Whether it's a couple or a family, all guests can explore this marvelous park and appreciate the landscapes, lakes, open-air museums, and other hidden secrets of the space. History buffs will delight in taking the city tour, where guests visit the historical areas of downtown San Luis Potosí and learn about the importance of bikes in the city. Then guests can end a long, experience-filled day with a craft beer tasting and local dishes at the resort.
