

Team Building & Leadership at The Lodges

Team building is an integral part of company retreats. Below is a listing of some of the events or fun extras that we can either host at The Lodges or bring your Team offsite.

Ropes/Challenge Courses, Paint Ball and Escape Rooms - offsite

Scavenger Hunts - Utilizing the 30 acres of trails and woodlands, your team can answer clues and hunt for various items. We can coordinate questions with the company so that they are pertinent to the company vision/mission. We can also coordinate scavenger hunts on the battlefield where by teams are on bicycles looking for specific monuments, etc. and need to photograph/document items found.

Softball/baseball/football games - utilizing our event field

Bonfire/Storyteller - evening bonfire with civil war storyteller or ghost stories. Complete with smores and spiked cider/hot chocolate.

Wine/Craft Beer Tastings - a fun extra - local wineries, breweries and distilleries can provide a fun tasting event to compliment an evening meal or later evening wind down.

Morning Yoga - clear your minds and take in the historic views that the Lodges offers. A great start to the day.

Fishing Derby - utilizing our 3 acre lake. Groups pick their spots and work as a team to catch as many fish as possible in a certain period of time.

Trivia Night/Paint Night

Never Give up Leadership Lessons - a 2-3 hour session (can be shorter or longer) with Shawn Cassidy (real estate developer, speech writer, trainer and co-founder of The Lodges) - Leadership lessons incorporating the battle of Gettysburg, as well as the 15 year battle of persistence and resiliency with the realization of The Lodges at Gettysburg. Introduction to his proprietary H2G leaders program - Building Trusted and Meaningful Relationships.

An Evening with Abe or General & Mrs. Lee - a great way to incorporate some history of Gettysburg before or after your evening meals.

Battlefield Tours - two hour bus tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield with a Licensed battlefield guide. You may also incorporate a tour at the National Visitor Center. This may also be combined with a leadership training session offered by The Leadership & Freedom Center at the Lodges.

Mindfulness Lessons - Offering 10 different options for building meaningful and trusted relationships, as well as learning the trusted leadership principles. These lessons can be anywhere from 1/2 to 2 days depending on your needs.
