

GORDON RIVER CRUISES

PRIVATE CHARTERS

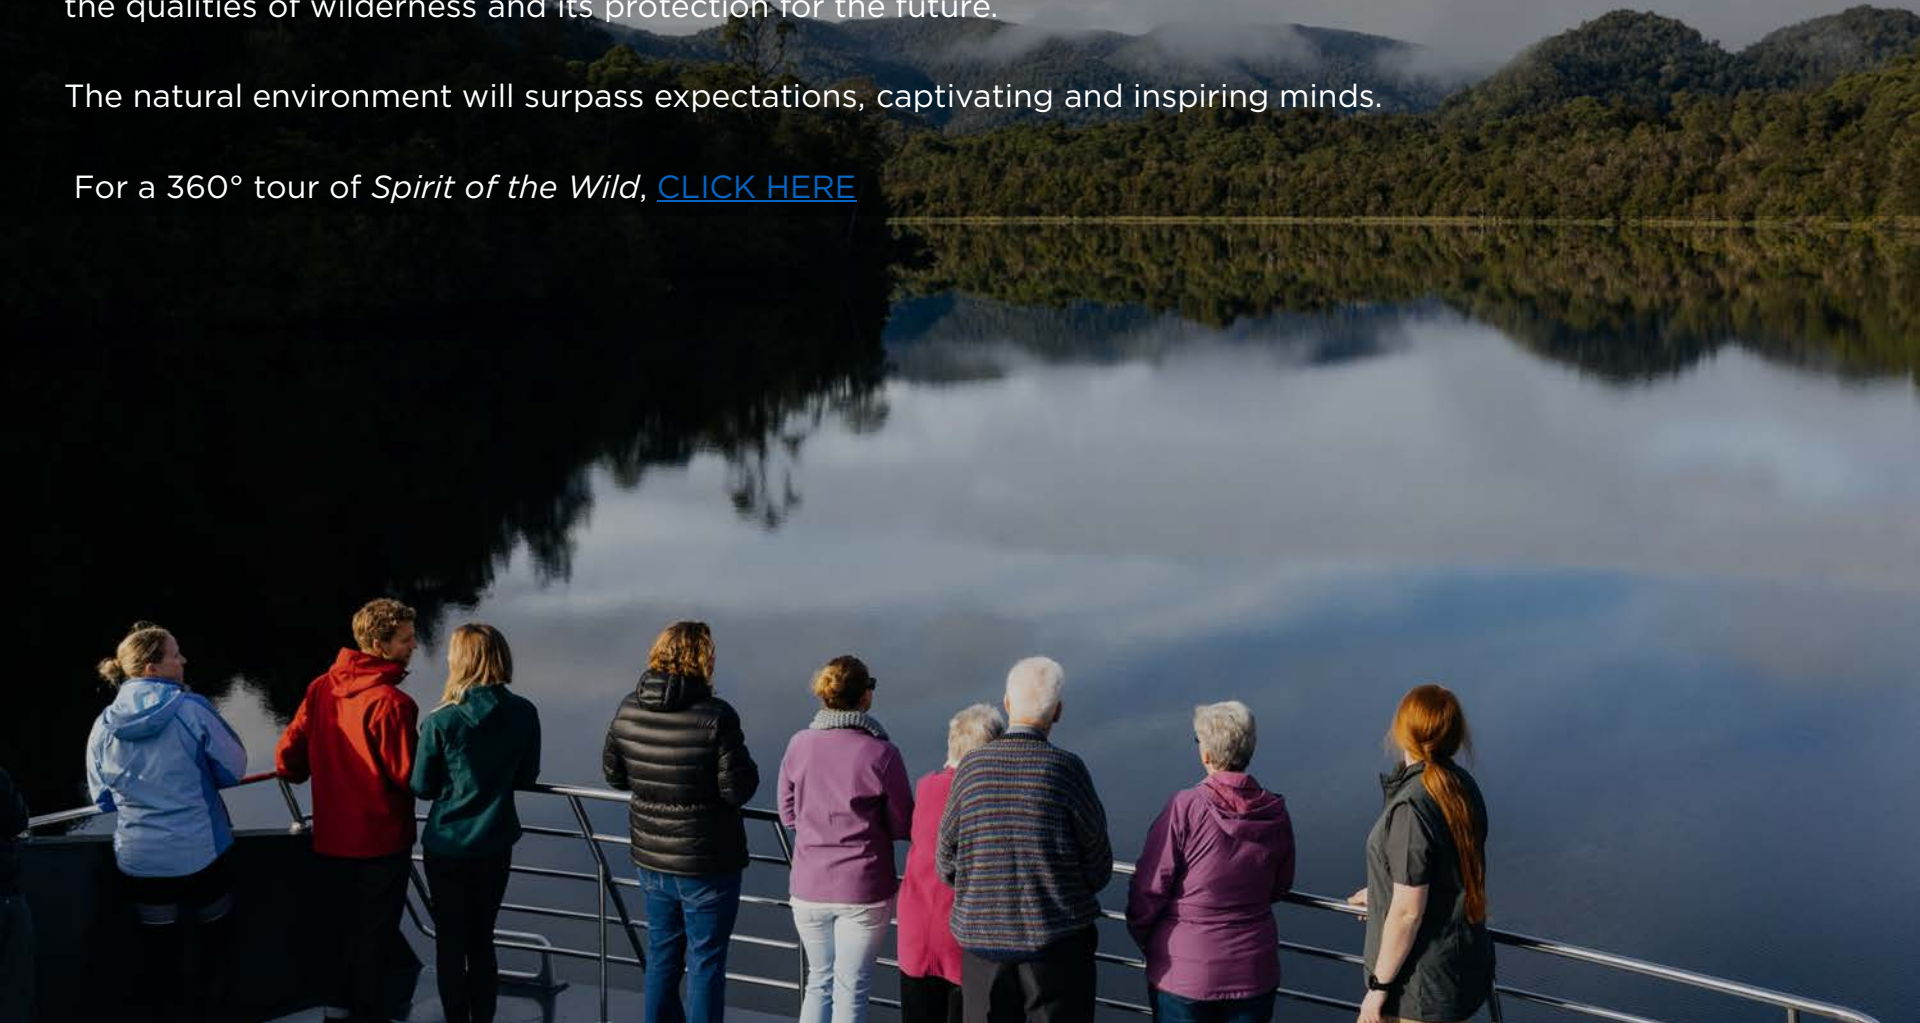

After a day of travelling or conferencing, relax and reconnect aboard Spirit of the Wild - a floating venue for your welcome reception, cocktail party, pre-dinner drinks and canapés or Christmas party.

And if your meeting goes far beyond the boardroom consider Spirit of the Wild for your next conference session. With theatre-style seating on the Main Deck, cocktail design on the Premier Upper Deck, and three viewing decks, your imagination can run wild, planning a diverse conference program immersed in the wilderness.

Cruise into the UNESCO Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area and allow guests to experience a natural wonder, a landscape like nothing else on earth, creating space to reflect on ancient natural history, human history, the qualities of wilderness and its protection for the future.

The natural environment will surpass expectations, captivating and inspiring minds.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Spirit of the Wild is equipped with a hybrid diesel-electric propulsion system, allowing us to shut down the diesel engines while on the Gordon River. You'll cruise quietly in the wilderness.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS IN TASMANIA

Applicable between the first weekend of October and April. The optimal private charter experience is between these months, as the days are longer, allowing more time to take in the views as the sun sets over the Southern Ocean.

- Approx. sunset time October: 7.45pm
- Approx. sunset time November: 8.20pm
- Approx. sunset time December: 9.00pm
- Approx. sunset time January: 8.45pm
- Approx. sunset time February: 8.40- 8.00pm
- Approx. sunset time March: 8.00-7.14pm

Departures may be subject to weather.

Spirit of the Wild can also be used as a floating venue while docked in Strahan between April and October.

For conference sessions, Christmas parties or group bookings during cruise hours, please contact our reservations team to discuss opportunities.
