

Bar649

Bar649 takes its name from the hotel's location at 649 Bridge Road in Richmond. The iconic tram car represents the building's significant history as the original Cable Tram Car Depot, which operated from 1885 to 1891. Step inside and journey back to the Victorian era, where iconic cocktails like the Martini, Old Fashioned, and Negroni were born. Our Signature Cocktails reimagine these timeless classics with a modern twist.

Relax in our cosy indoor lounge or sunlit courtyard, and enjoy a fusion-style bar menu inspired by Melbourne's cultural diversity — featuring sliders, skewers, and elevated bar favourites made for sharing.

Our History

The tram depot in Bridge Road, Richmond, was the first of 15 tram shed complexes built between 1885 and 1891 to house the Melbourne cable trams. The depots were built by the Melbourne Tramway & Omnibus Co. Ltd. which owned and operated the service. The tracks and eleven cable winding engine houses were built by the Melbourne Tramways Trust.

The Richmond Depot was closed in 1927.

The Amora Hotel, rises from behind the original single-storey façade, which is all that remains of the original structure*

*The hotel does its best to avoid cross-contamination with food allergens but does not operate allergen-free kitchens. The culinary team uses the highest quality raw meats and seafood but please note consuming raw or undercooked fish, shellfish, eggs or meat increases the risk of foodborne illness.

In accordance with Amora Hotel policy and food safety standards, all beef burgers are served well-done.

Amora is a cashless property. Payments by credit card will incur a 1.9% transaction fee

Sundays incur a 10% surcharge, Public Holidays incur a 15% surcharge

Inclusive of GST, gratuities are not compulsory and are at the discretion of the guest.
