INTRODUCTION

At Oncore, we acknowledge the Gadigal people, the traditional custodians of this land in which we have gathered. We pay respect to the Elders of the past, present and emerging.

The wine list at Oncore by Clare Smyth embraces everything Clare and the team love about wine from old, fine and rare to young, new and exciting. Our cellar is home to wines that are already firm favourites, vintages to return to time and time again as well as a host of fresh discoveries waiting to be tried; an authentic reflection on the wine world today.

Our team are entirely dedicated to exceptional wine and hope to offer a list that excites every palette. We are proud of the depth that has been meticulously built into the collection, matching Oncore's food and service with our shared dedication to excellence.

We appreciate the uniqueness of every bottle and wish to commend the hard work of their production. We strive to do justice to all those involved from the growers, to the winemakers and the barrel crafters. Many dedicated hands were responsible in bringing these wines to our door, and to your table.

To see the vineyards, feel the soil, taste the grapes, and talk to the producers - this is something you can't find in wine books. We travel regularly to wine regions and as sommeliers, we are the connection between the winemaker and the consumer. Each opportunity for our guests to experience the provenance of individual wines fuels our enthusiasm and gives us the chance to share our passion for wine.

We aim to provide the highest level of service but without the pretence. We want you to have fun, and we want to make it personal, tailored to you and your time with us.

It doesn't matter if you don't know your Cabernet from your Carignan. In fact, that's even more exciting for us because we then get to act as your guide and hopefully share something new.

2024 Bernard Baudry, Chinon Rosé, Cabernet Franc, Loire Valley, France

Bernard Baudry and his son Matthieu are making wonderful wines from the town of Chinon along the Loire River, specialising in Cabernet Franc. Most of the wines are red here, however a small quantity of rosé is also produced with wonderful charm.

2019 Thomas, 'Braemore Vineyard', Sémillon, Hunter Valley, New South Wales

In 1997 Andrew Thomas established his own Estate after 13 years working at Tyrrell's, and is now joined by his son Dan. They are championing single vineyard Hunter Valley Semillon with the Braemore vineyard being their crown jewel. These wines are thirst quenching, zesty and linear.

2023 Eleni & Edouard Vocoret, 'Bas de Chapelot' Chardonnay, Chablis, Burgundy, France

The Vocoret family have long been producing wines in Chablis for generations, however Edouard Vocoret wanted to make his own, ambitious and single site wines for himself. Edouard and Eleni started in 2012 with 5ha of his family's Domaine, starting with three wines only. Bas de Chapelot is from just under the premier cru of Montée de Tonnerre, and shows a generous yellow orchard fruit, and soft and smokey minerality.

2019 Bass Phillip, Gamay, Gippsland, Victoria

Bass Phillip was founded in 1979 and today are recognised for their incredible wines made from Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. They do also make some alternative red wines, namely from Nebbiolo, and as for this wine, Gamay. Whilst most wines made from Gamay are often particularly fruit forward, this one is far more delicate, with a perfumed aroma of potpourri.

2021 Porseleinberg, Syrah, Swartland, South Africa

This is one of the greatest Syrah's to be coming out of South Africa, from the visionary Marc Kent at Boukenhoutsloof, and chief winemaker Callie Louw. The Syrah grapes are farmed on a rugged schist soil in the hot and dry area of Swartland. Callie chooses to mature the wine for a year in 500L barrels, and then hold the wine back in bottle for another 18 months before release. These wines are bursting with red fruit, violet and silky texture.

N.V. Chambers Rosewood, 'Grand Muscat', Rutherglen, Victoria 60ml

Rutherglen is a region famous for its fortified wines. Chambers Rosewood are one of the great producers here. They began grape growing in this region in 1901 and use a modified solera system to blend aged wines, producing a wonderful 'sticky'. A charming touch of dried raisins, toffee and butterscotch are the hallmarks of this luscious wine.

2021 Domaine Ostertag, 'Muenchberg' Grand Cru, Riesling, Alsace, France

André Ostertag is making wines from his family domaine in the town of Epfig, just south-west of Strassbourg. He has divided his 14ha of vines into many sub-plots and this one comes from the Grand Cru of Muenchberg - named after the monks who planted vines here in the 11th-12th century. This wine has a brilliant elegance, citrus fruit and wonderful length.

2022 Sadie Family, 'Kokerboom', Sémillon, Swartland, South Africa

Eben Sadie is often regarded as making some of the greatest, if not the greatest, wines of South Africa. Kokerboom is made from 90-year-old vines of Sémillon Blanc and Sémillon Gris planted on the Citrusdal Mountain in Swartland. These bush vines have never been irrigated, nor seen any herbicides or pesticides and produce a tiny number of grapes. While Semillon is generally a subtle wine, this has far more character and generosity than any other Semillon most people will come across.

2022 Domaine Henri & Gilles Buisson, Saint-Romain 'Sous le Château', Chardonnay, Burgundy, France

Brothers; Franck and Frédéric Buisson can trace their grape growing lineage back to 1758, and today are recognised as producing wonderful wines made from Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. They farm 20ha in and around the town of Saint-Romain which sits high up on the slopes of the Côtes de Beaune. This wonderful Saint-Romain produces pure, nuanced and crystalline Chardonnay.

2022 Williams Selyem, Pinot Noir, Anderson Valley, California, USA

What once started as a hobby, between two friends - Burt Williams and Ed Selyem - making wine out of a car garage on the weekends of the late 70s ended up becoming not only a profession, but a one of the most celebrated wineries of California. This Pinot Noir is matured for 11 months in French barriques, and offers a deep, dark and brooding style of Pinot Noir.

2004 Brokenwood, 'Graveyard Vineyard', Shiraz, Hunter Valley, New South Wales

Regarded as the finest red wine of New South Wales, the Graveyard Vineyard Shiraz is a blend of the best parcels at the Brokenwood Estate. Matured in French oak barrels and carefully cellared for 15 years in bottle, this 2009 shows wonderful red fruit, spice and suppleness.

2021 Château d'Yquem, Premier Cru Supérieur Sauternes, Bordeaux, France

Château d'Yquem one of the most famous wines of the world. Adored for its harmonious sweetness while showcasing an incomparable array of fruit, body and weight. A blend of Sauvignon Blanc and Sémillon it is matured for three years in French barriques which adds incredible complexity and sweet spice.

CHAMPAGNE

We love our Champagne at Oncore! Quite simply, because Champagne continues to be the envy of the world's sparkling wine producers. Ok, so Champagne sales have taken a hit from Prosecco recently, while English sparkling wine producers are rightly shouting about their usefully high acidity levels as the Champagne region warms up. But Champagne still rules, especially when it comes to ageing. That said, the big Champagne houses are being challenged by a new wave of producers who prefer to wear a pair of jeans than a sharp suit; who might farm organically, and focus on single vineyard and single grape variety wines. Cue the Champagne grower. The rise of the grower-producers has revolutionised this generation in the region. Top Champagne is no longer the exclusive realm of the big players. While single vineyard is the new vanguard, with deliciously complex cuvées from trailblazing terroiriste growers taking the wine world by storm.

"I only drink Champagne when I'm happy, and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it – unless I'm thirsty." Lily Bollinger

BURGUNDY - CÔTE DE BEAUNE

Getting your head around Burgundy's classification system, Ok, deep breath. There are general appellations, such as Bourgogne Blanc, and regional appellations, such as Chablis. Village wines come next, naming the best villages, such as Meursault. Next up is premier cru, the second-best vineyard within each village – the village comes first on the label, like Meursault-Charmes. Finally, grands crus, the top wines in Burgundy, from the top vineyards.

"I feel sorry for people who don't drink. When they wake up in the morning, that's as good as they're going to feel all day." - Frank Sinatra

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti (DRC) is widely recognized as the finest Domaine in the world.

Situated in the Côte de Nuits, on the Golden Slope of Burgundy, the remarkable history of the Domaine dates back to the 16th century. However 1232 is the year, when the former Abbey of Saint-Vivant in Vosne first acquired 1.8 hectares of vineyard, to become the heart of production.

With a focus on Grand Cru vineyards, owning more Grand Cru terroir than any other, this leads to a spectacular array of magnificent wines. Production is small further adding to the exclusivity and mystique of these wines.

There is something simply exhilarating about these wines.

FRANCE - BORDEAUX

Ringling the changes in Bordeaux, so you thought things hadn't changed much in France's most famous and largest wine region? Think again. There have been fundamental stylistic shifts in the region's wines over the last few decades. Thanks go in part to the simultaneous rise of the consultant and the wine critic (we're thinking of you, Michel Rolland and Robert Parker Jr). Their influence was – still is - massive, prompting an opulence in the wines not seen before. Who cares how these new super-ripe wines age? Not the public, certainly, who don't want to wait three decades to drink it. Yes, the region still lives and dies by the 1855 classification that ranks its top properties, but nearly everyone not at the top thinks this is now past its expiration date. And there's a growing number of earnest producers making laudable wines at artisan level, who are now farming with an eye on organics, and who revere the freshness and integrity that once made 'claret', as us Brits like to call it, so beloved.

"I can certainly see that you know your wine. Most of the guests who stay here wouldn't know the difference between Bordeaux and Claret." – Basil Fawlty

RHÔNE VALLEY

Did you know that there are vineyards along virtually the entire length of the Rhône River, from its source in the Swiss Alps to its mouth near Marseilles? The variety of wines is staggering, unsurprisingly. In wine terms, the valley is split into the northern and southern Rhône. The vineyards in the north, some of the oldest in France, are etched into the mountainside on narrow terraces at dizzying gradients, with the great majority of wine being made from the Syrah grape. The region's most famous wines are the deep-flavoured, long-lived reds of Hermitage and the generally more fragrant and delicate Côte-Rôtie. The southern Rhône, meanwhile, is more user-friendly (more boozy, too – we're looking at you, Châteauneuf-du-Pape). You can thank the openly fruity character of the Grenache grape, which rules here. And the change in scenery - it's the gateway to Provence, think olive trees, lavender and cicadas.
