

Zero Tolerance Policy and Prevention of Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children and Adolescents (CSECA)

Hoteles Bogotá Plaza is committed to combating the exploitation, pornography, and sexual tourism involving children and adolescents. We strictly adhere to Law 679 of 2001 and Law 1336 of 2009. Guests, visitors, and any other individuals are hereby warned that the commercial sexual exploitation of children and adolescents in the context of travel and tourism (CSECA) in Colombia is a criminal offense as stipulated by the Penal Code.

The Colombian government condemns sexual, erotic, or pornographic activities that include minors under the age of 18, crimes that will be prosecuted and punished with sentences of up to thirty-three (33) years in prison. The Colombian Penal Code, Law 599 of 2000, Article 219, states that "anyone who directs, organizes, or promotes tourist activities that include the sexual exploitation of minors will face imprisonment from four (4) to eight (8) years."

In compliance with Colombian regulations and to ensure the proper registration of minors, they must be accompanied by their parents and/or legal guardian, presenting their birth certificate or identification document according to their place of birth at check-in. If the minor is accompanied by an adult other than their parents and/or legal guardian, this authorization must be notarized or authenticated by a consulate according to the country of origin, and a copy of the identity document of the parents and/or legal guardian must also be presented.
