

THE SINGULAR®
SANTIAGO
Lastarria Hotel

THE BRAND

Swiss citizens Paul and Bertha Sahli, arrived in Chile in 1913. Their eldest son, Fernando, leased the Crillón Hotel and invited his siblings Pablo and Raul to join him in the business. The Crillón hotel opened in 1931 becoming the most luxurious hotel in Santiago and an elegant social events centre. The hotel closed in 1978 however Fernando's sons continued working in the hotel industry. Felipe, who studied in Lausanne, Switzerland, was involved in the setting up of the Holiday Inn hotels in Chile and Buenos Aires. He later created The Singular Hotel concept and opened The Singular Patagonia in 2011 and The Singular Santiago in 2014.

THE SINGULAR SANTIAGO

Located in the heart of Santiago, The Singular Santiago, Lastarria Hotel is renowned for its neo-classical architectural style, which was designed as a tribute to its cultural and historic surroundings. It holds a perfectly balanced architecture, setting and gastronomy which blend into the essence of the place.

THE HISTORY

The Singular Patagonia opened in 2011, followed by the construction of The Singular Santiago in February 2012. The project comprises 6,500 m² of built area divided into nine floors, which include 62 rooms, a restaurant, terrace, Spa, gym and luxury meeting rooms. The architectural design was led by Federico Prieto and the interior design by Enrique Concha.

THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

The Singular Santiago is located in the Lastarria neighbourhood, one of the most charming places in the city, with a rich history and cultural life. Located in the north-east of town, it is only steps away from the Santa Lucia hill and the Parque Forestal. Lastarria is a classic district, exuding history and culture. Its urban development started in the mid-XIX century with the construction of the Veracruz Church; however, it was consolidated in the beginning of the twentieth century with the refurbishment of the Santa Lucia hill, the design of the Parque Forestal and the construction of the Museum of Fine Arts.

In 1997, Lastarria was declared Historic District, which ensures protection and preservation of its cultural heritage. During this period, the Plaza Mulato Gil was created, which was hosts antique shops and books fairs.
