Hide Away and Re-connect with the Great Outdoors in the City at Grand Park City Hall

Tablescape's new Glamping Picnic experience offers the best of both worlds

SINGAPORE – Imagine – a deep blue sky streaked with fiery oranges and pinks as the sun leisurely sets in the distance. A tall white tent, plush with cushions, air-cooled interiors – and you and your friends toasting one another with flutes of champagne as you nibble on lobster, foie gras and cheese. This could be your reality – simply by reserving the new Glamping Picnic experience with Tablescape.

Glamping Tent at Grand Park City Hall

The Glamping experience leverages on the glorious rooftop terrace of Grand Park City Hall. Dramatic black metal scaffolding frame the open skies overhead and the sprawling city skyline all around while thoughtful landscaping softens the terrace with lush leafy green. Amidst this setting are two sturdy white tents, set up to offer luxury and comfort with rugs, cushions, a low dining table and charming embellishments that bring the all-important element of green into the tents. And if being on a rooftop away from it all is not enough privacy, the tent flaps can easily be let down so that you can be in your own world.

Still being in the city also means that internet access and modern plumbing are within easy reach! For native city dwellers who want to dip a toe into the “great outdoors” and spend quality time with their loved ones – stress-free, with all the amenities they’re used to, this is the perfect spot.

In short, the Glamping Picnic experience is the dream picnic experience, made simple.

Two seatings, each lasting two hours, are available for reservation. Those who want to watch the clouds glow pink and orange as the sun kisses them goodbye can choose the 5.30pm slot while those who prefer to snuggle under starry skies can opt for the 8pm slot.

And as its name suggests, the Glamping Picnic experience offers an exclusive picnic menu – a luxurious, generous spread, considerately presented as two-bite dainties that are easy to eat even when lounging.

Indulge in items such as the all-important Cheese platter which presents a selection of cheeses served with crackers, dried fruit and nuts; Lobster where freshly prepared lobster salad, crowned with caviar, rest on fluffy blinis; Foie Gras featuring generous slabs of buttery duck liver resting on rich slices of housemade brioche, balanced with housemade William pear compote, pistachio and balsamic vinaigrette; and the adorable Tablescape-Style Mini Beef Burgers, where housemade burger buns cuddle a juicy wagyu beef patty, paired with mushroom, bacon, onions, cheese, truffle mayonnaise and a small quail's egg cooked sunny side up!

The best thing? Simply leave everything behind once your time is up. True to parent hotel Grand Park City Hall's ethos of sustainability and ecoresponsibility – a serious commitment which has been honoured with awards both local and international, the set-up uses as little disposables and single-use items as possible without compromising on the strict levels of hygiene the new normal demands. But with this stressfree Glamping Picnic experience, the only thing guests need to ensure is thoroughly enjoying themselves.

Glamping Tent Set-up at Grand Park City Hall

Choose to accompany the meal with free-flow soft drinks; or make it adult, so to speak, with 2 cans of Tiger beer or 2 glasses of housepour red or white, or prosecco! Diners who want to order more drinks can take their pick from Tablescape's own beverage list.

There's an option for those who want some time on this rooftop hideaway but prefer table service, too. Choose the gazebo and dine under a dreamy white muslin roof. Floating spheres of coloured light gently illuminate a table draped with snowy white linen, perfectly set up with the flatware and china needed for Tablescape's 4-course degustation menu. Set in a discreet corner of the terrace, the sparkling lights of the cityscape accompany the elegant meal to create a tablescape like no other.

Rooftop Dining at Grand Park City Hall

A maximum of five persons can be accommodated in each of the tents as well as the gazebo, for a minimum spending of $88++ per person and a total minimum spending of $350++. Want to reserve the space for a spectacular date night, or for a proposal? Reservations for less than five persons will also be accepted, and the team is happy to discuss special requests!

On that note, the Glamping Picnic experience is also available as part of a set for hotel guests who purchase stays in selected suites such as the Junior Suite, the Park Suite and the Coleman Suite. Straightforwardly titled the Glampcation package, it offers the Glamping Picnic experience for two persons for one evening along with complimentary breakfast for two, free Wi-Fi and complimentary parking. Three additional guests can participate in the Glamping Picnic experience at just $88++ per guest – perfect for a surprise celebration!

A no-fuss, no-muss way to re-connect with Mother Nature and decompress from the stresses of the daily grind right at our doorstep? Irresistible.
