Carlton Hotel Singapore Unveils Newly Refreshed Event Spaces, Redefining Event Elegance in the Heart of the City

Singapore, June 2026 – Carlton Hotel Singapore proudly unveils the refreshed Empress Ballrooms, alongside newly revitalised Istana and Connaught meeting rooms, reaffirming its position as a leading destination for weddings, social celebrations, meetings and corporate events in the heart of Singapore.

Thoughtfully redesigned to cater to the evolving expectations of today's event planners, the refreshed venues seamlessly combine sophisticated aesthetics with cutting-edge event technology, offering versatile spaces for occasions of every scale.

At the heart of the transformation are the Empress Ballrooms, now featuring a host of contemporary enhancements designed to elevate every event experience. State-of-the-art LED walls deliver vibrant, high-definition visual displays, creating immersive settings for weddings, gala dinners, conferences and product launches. Complementing these advanced visual capabilities are newly installed spatial audio systems that ensure exceptional sound quality throughout the event. Adding to the ballrooms' elegance are bespoke floating crystal chandeliers, thoughtfully designed to create a sense of grandeur while enhancing the warmth and ambience for every occasion.

For larger-scale celebrations and events, Empress Ballrooms 4 and 5 offer expansive pillar-less spaces with panoramic views, providing unobstructed sightlines and greater flexibility for customised event layouts. The seamless open-plan design allows hosts to fully realise their event vision, whether for a grand wedding banquet, corporate conferences or gala dinners.

Meanwhile, Empress Ballrooms 1 to 3 present a more intimate setting, ideal for smaller weddings, solemnisations, private celebrations, corporate functions and exclusive gatherings. Designed with the same elegant finishes and technological enhancements as their larger counterparts, these versatile spaces offer a sophisticated backdrop for meaningful moments shared among loved ones.

The newly refurbished Istana and Connaught Function Rooms offer flexible and modern environments for business meetings, executive discussions, training sessions and corporate workshops. Further elevating these venues is a refreshed foyer area, furnished with contemporary seating and stylish coffee tables, creating a welcoming space for coffee breaks, networking and informal discussions. Designed to support both comfort and productivity, it serves as a seamless extension of the meeting spaces, enriching the overall experience for delegates and guests alike.

Strategically located within Singapore's civic and business district, Carlton Hotel Singapore continues to be a preferred venue for memorable celebrations and successful corporate events. The refreshed Empress Ballrooms, together with the revitalised Istana and Connaught meeting rooms, underscore the hotel's dedication to providing inspiring spaces where meaningful moments and impactful events come to life.
