Masseria Furnirussi

In the heart of Salento, Masseria Furnirussi is an elegant country estate nestled within Europe's largest fig orchard. Crafted from luminous local stone, it reinterprets the region's traditional furni houses as a place where nature and architecture exist in perfect harmony. Its 60 rooms and suites, many with private pools and secluded gardens, open onto a landscape of fig trees, vineyards and centuries-old olive groves. From a table celebrating the flavours of the region to a wellness sanctuary devoted to restoration, and its privileged position between the Adriatic and Ionian coasts, the Masseria invites guests to experience the authentic spirit of Salento through its villages, beaches and timeless traditions.

SIGNATURE ROOMS & SUITES

60 rooms and suites immersed in nature, many with private gardens and pools. Inspired by the quiet beauty of Salento, each space combines contemporary comfort with timeless elegance. Natural materials, warm earthy tones and artisanal details create an atmosphere of understated luxury and effortless relaxation.

CULINARY HERITAGE

The All-day Restaurant & Bar celebrates the authentic spirit of Salento from breakfast through to dinner. Seasonal ingredients, local traditions and contemporary creativity come together in a relaxed yet refined dining experience. At the heart of the Masseria, the outdoor social table becomes a place of connection, where long lunches, aperitivo rituals and evenings beneath the fig trees unfold in effortless conviviality.

SPA & FITNESS CENTRE

Inspired by the Mediterranean landscape, the SPA offers a journey of wellbeing shaped by natural ingredients, personalised rituals and restorative treatments. A place where body and mind reconnect in an atmosphere of effortless tranquillity.
