RUNNING ROUTES

IN SCHÖNBRUNN PALACE PARK (5 KM)

Run where others go on vacation. The Schönbrunn Palace Park is not only an attraction for tourists, but also for athletes with a penchant for self-expression in front of a special backdrop.

With the winding avenues, however, you have to be careful to keep an eye on your route. A sprint up the Gloriette also provides the desired 180 pulse.

AROUND THE VIENNA RING (6 KM)

The classic in Vienna: On the Vienna Ring it is not only possible to stroll, but also to jog or run. At peak times, however, the Ring is packed with tourists, runners and cyclists, but there's nothing wrong with a morning or evening loop of the Ring. In addition, there is a super city panorama at any time of day.

PRATER HAUPTALLEE (9 KM)

The Prater Hauptallee in Vienna Leopoldstadt runs 4.5 kilometers straight as a die - the course is ideal for runners who meticulously look at their pulse watches after every kilometer and take their split time. The avenue has existed in two parts since 1538, and since 1867 the road from the Praterstern to the Lusthaus at the end of the avenue has been continuously passable or walkable.
