LEXIS HOTEL GROUP SHARING HAPPINESS FOR A JOYOUS DEEPAVALI

Seremban, October 22, 2019 - As part of its annual Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative, in conjunction with Festival of Lights, Lexis Hotel Group treated children from Persatuan Kebajikan Kanak-kanak Seremban, Negeri Sembilan to a good time. The main objective of this event is to spread festive joy and sharing the company's good fortune with the less privileged.

This year, Lexis Hotel Group honoured to feast children from Persatuan Kebajikan Kanak-kanak Seremban with Deepavali delicacies as well as entertained them with games and enjoyable performances. The home was established in 2012 and located at Taman Bidara in Seremban, Negeri Sembilan. It is a private independent welfare organisation which is registered under Department of Social Welfare. The home takes care of total 25 children between the ages of 1 to 17 years old.

The event started off with the arrival of the management team from three resorts namely, Grand Lexis Port Dickson, Lexis Port Dickson and Lexis Hibiscus Port Dickson led by the President of Lexis Hotel Group, Ms Mandy Chew Siok Cheng to the home. Upon arrival the team swiftly prepared and laid out a delectable spread of Deepavali treats specially prepared for the occupants to enjoy during lunch.

The lunch menu carefully selected by Lexis' chefs to commemorate the festival of lights includes pilaf rice, mutton masalla, tandoori chicken, muruku and masala tea.

Chew said, "Every year and every festivities, we make it our mission to always lending a helping hand and contribute in whatever ways we possibly could. As the hotel team gears up to spread cheers to younger generation, we continue to do what we do best, which is give back to our community."

Further she added, "Spreading cheer to the less fortunate is something we look forward to, and we hope that our humble effort has brought happiness to the residents here. Many of the children miss their family, especially when they are unable to celebrate Deepavali together. They definitely feel special with the extra attention given today."

The charity event brought joy and smiles to occupants as they enjoyed the scrumptious lunch and a variety of Deepavali goodies such as muruku, cookies and sweets. Mandy Chew, then presented each children with a Deepavali 'Love Gift' to the delight of the occupants and groceries consist of rice, cooking oil, curry powder, canned sardines, milo, milk powder, assorted biscuits, soap, toothpaste and more to the co-founder of the home, Mr Kumaran@Guna and Madam Saraswathy@Jasmine.

"We are grateful for Lexis Hotel Group for coming forward and spending good time with the residents of our home. This only goes to show that there are still many caring and loving people around," said Mr. Kumaran. "The children really enjoyed the activities and performance prepared by Lexis staff," he added.

"I would like to thank the hotel team for the sumptuous lunch. It is really delicious and we really enjoyed the lunch and the entertainment," said Thanshika, 10 years old.

The event ended with group photography session with the residents and hotel team.
