CLASSIC PAIRING

95PP

2023 | Ca' Marcanda Vistamare | Tuscany, Italy

The only white wine produced by the Gaja family in Tuscany is a textural blend of Vermentino, Fiano and Viognier. The generous and slightly marine nose is followed by a remarkable complexity of roundness and herbaceous notes.

2023 | Tornatore Etna Bianco, Carricante | Sicilia, Italy

Tornatore's Etna Bianco is a white wine made from vines terraced on the north slope of the volcano. Grapes harvested by hand in small crates are brought quickly to the winery and undergo manual selection. They are softly pressed and once fermentation is finished, the resulting wine rests on the fine lees for about three months.

2019 | Marabino 'Rosso di Contrada', Nero d'Avola | Sicilia, Italy

Guided by a strict organic and biodynamic philosophy, this mid-weight Nero d'Avola offers a fresh, full fruity vibe of red berries and warm spices that concludes with a refined, chalky tannin finish.

2023 | Pierro Gatti, Moscato Frizzante | Piemonte, Italy

2022 | Elena Walch 'Vigna Kastelaz' Gewürztraminer | Alto Adige, Italy

2023 | Domaines Leflaive Pouilly-Fuissé | Bourgogne, France

Drawing on 12 distinct parcels and Puligny-level craftsmanship, the Domaines Leflaive Pouilly-Fuissé 2023 delivers exceptional geological depth and finesse. The 2023 vintage is beautifully concentrated and structured, benefiting from 18 months of precise aging to achieve a perfect, vibrant balance.

2022 | Azienda Agricola Sciara 980 metri, Nerello Mascalese | Sicilia, Italy

Sourced from ungrafted Nerello Mascalese vines at 980 metres on Etna's north-facing Contrada, where thin volcanic sand and extreme diurnal shifts shape precision. A wine defined by altitude-driven tension, low yields, slow ripening and mineral-rich basalt translating into finesse.

2022 | Prophet's Rock Vin de Paille Pinot Gris | Central Otago, NZ

This is a rare Central Otago sweet wine crafted from hand-selected berries dried on straw mats to intensify purity and concentration. This is not produced every year, only in exceptional vintages, It tells a story of patience, precision and the winemaker's devotion.

2023 | Alfio Cosentino, Vigna Don Paolo, Etna Bianco | Sicilia, Italy

This expression of Carricante from the volcanic soils of Mt. Etna displays an energy bursting with citrus oils, white flowers and a good pinch of salt. The palate is rich while still having bright acid to wrap around the fruit.

2023 | Domaine de la Suffrene, Bandol | Provence, France

Embrace the holiday feeling with this rich rosé from the famous hills of Bandol; perfect combination with our seafood pasta.

2021 Casa E. di Mirafiore Nebbiolo | Piemonte, Italy

This Nebbiolo captures the elegance of east-facing vineyards, offering an aromatic profile of nutmeg, dried tobacco, and withered rose. After aging 12 months in large oak and six in the bottle, the palate is remarkably velvety, balancing sweet tannins with a lingering, balsamic finish.

2017 | Cantine di Dolianova Moscato di Sardegna | Sardegna, Italy

Grown on limestone and granite soils around Dolianova and crafted by the renowned Sardinian cooperative, this moscato shows purity and lifted aromatics.

2021 | Müller Catoir, Bürgergarten Erste Lage Riesling | Pfalz, Germany

From the historic vineyards of Haardt, Müller Catoir crafts this elegant Riesling from the prized Bürgergarten "Erste Lage". Sunlit slopes and cool Paltinate breezes shape its pure citrus and mineral precision. A wine of quite power-refined, poised, unmistakably Pfalz.

2022 | Elena Walch Beyond the Clouds Chardonnay | Alto Adige, Italy

Alto Adige's first super cuvée was born in 2000. Ever since, Elena Walch and her two daughters have been producing one of Italy's best chardonnays.

2019 | Elvio Cogno, Barolo Cascina Nuova | Piemonte, Italy

Young vines can make a great Barolo that can be enjoyed without having to wait 20 years. This is what Valter wanted to prove, and it has been achieved with brio. This textbook Barolo shows intense aromas of rose petals and present itself in a delicate tannin structure true to its origins.

2011 | Château La Tour Blanche, Sauternes, 1er Grand Cru Classé | Bordeaux, France

One of my longtime favorite Châteaux in Sauternes. The Château, and its vineyards, was gifted by his previous owner to the French government in 1909 with one condition: they had to create a winemaking school within its walls. 2011 was a brilliant vintage for La Tour Blanch and the wine shows hint of confit pineapple and vanilla.

2022 | La Tosa, Colli Piacentini, Sorriso di Cielo | Emilia Romagna, Italy

Created in 1991 following a wish from the producer to show his love for this varietal. Some consider it as an alternative to Gewürztraminer but don't let this fool you. This is a dry textural white packing a great deal of flavours.

2022 | Te Mata, Cape Crest | Hawkes Bay, New Zealand

This was the first commercial winery in New Zealand. The Buck's have taken over since 1974, and Cape crest is their take on a white Bordeaux blend, blending grassy barrel age sauvignon blended with semillon and sauvignon gris for freshness and acidity.

2021 | Perticaia, Trebbiano Spoletino | Umbria, Italy

Crafted in the only Central Italian region away from a littoral, this wine shows vegetal and grassy notes.

2022 | Cordero di Montezemolo, Langhe Nebbiolo | Piemonte, Italy

19th generation winemaker Alberto is carrying a long tradition of mastering Nebbiolo. The varietal is known for its refined tannins which are the perfect match with our famous Cotoletta a la Milanese.

2019 | Damijan Podversic, Ribolla Gialla Macerato | Friuli, Italy

Tamara has taken over from her father and is carrying the estate and his vision. Damijan has been making long maceration wine from the late nineties. The intensity of the wines is incomparable, and their precision has rarely been matched.

2023 | Quintarelli, Bianco Secco | Veneto, Italy

World renowned winery in the heart of Veneto, extremely famous for their Amarone but we often forget this white blend. There is a lots of Minerality, and tensions lifted up by a great tropical body and an almost salty finish.

2022 | Ca' Marcanda Vistamare | Tuscany, Italy

The only white wine produced by the Gaja family in Tuscany is a textural blend of Vermentino, Fiano and Viognier. The generous and slightly marine nose is followed by a remarkable complexity of roundness and herbaceous notes.

2018 | Colleoni, Rosso di Montalcino | Tuscany, Italy

In 2018 Marino made a strict selection for his Riserva and decided to declassify the grapes from his Brunello di Montalcino vineyards into this amazing Rosso. This is dense, serious and highly balanced with mineral notes and great vibrancy.

2011 | Château La Tour Blanche, Sauternes, 1er Grand Cru Classe | Bordeaux, France

One of my longtime favorite Château in Sauternes. The Château, and its vineyards, was gifted by his previous owner to the French government in 1909 with one condition: they had to create a winemaking school within its walls. 2011 was a brilliant vintage for La Tour Blanche and the wine shows hint of confit pineapple and vanilla.
