

Ifuru Island Maldives announces
FESTIVE SEASON INSPIRED BY THE SPIRIT OF NEW ORLEANS

Ifuru Island Maldives is delighted to announce its festive season programme, taking place from 21 December 2025 to 10 January 2026. This year, the resort will embrace the soulful rhythms and vibrant atmosphere of New Orleans, blending the joy of jazz and the elegance of Mardi Gras with the natural beauty of the Maldives.

The celebrations will feature a series of carefully curated events designed to bring guests together through music, fine dining, and island warmth. Highlights of the programme include:

- Christmas Eve Gala Dinner – A refined dining experience set against the stunning backdrop of the lagoon.
- Christmas Day – A joyful celebration with special culinary creations and live entertainment.
- New Year's Eve: New Orleans Nights & Jazz Vibes – An unforgettable evening inspired by the spirit of New Orleans, with live jazz, bold flavours, and a spectacular countdown under the stars.
- Orthodox Christmas – A candlelit celebration honouring tradition, paired with soulful live music.
- Nightly Jazz and Entertainment – Sunset performances and evenings filled with rhythm and atmosphere.
- Festive Activities for Families – Thoughtfully designed experiences to make the season magical for younger guests.

"This festive season we are offering our guests a programme that is both distinctive and memorable," said Marcel Sawyer, General Manager of Ifuru Island Maldives. "By blending the cultural richness of New Orleans with the natural beauty of the Maldives, we are creating a celebration that is vibrant, soulful, and truly unique."
