THE SPRING AFTERNOON TEA COLLECTION AT PARK LOUNGE

This April, Park Lounge welcomes a spring afternoon tea collection, a quietly refined collection where each creation invites a moment of pause and delight. Crafted by our newly appointed Pastry Chef, Douglas Oberon, the experience unfolds through a delicate balance of sweet and savory, each piece thoughtfully composed to awaken the senses.

From Blanquefort in southwestern France, Chef Douglas brings nearly two decades of experience shaped across some of the world's most refined kitchens, including his time at the three-Michelin-starred Alain Ducasse at The Dorchester. His approach is guided by subtlety and precision, where sweetness is gently restrained, allowing the natural character of each ingredient to unfold with clarity.

Guided by a mindful approach to sustainability, he embraces local sourcing and thoughtful craftsmanship at every stage. The result is a collection that is as visually captivating as it is effortlessly elegant: light, harmonious, and designed to linger softly, long after the final bite.

TOP ITALIAN WINE OF THE YEAR 2025

Rising as the highest mountain on a Mediterranean island, Mount Etna is also the world's most active stratovolcano, a landscape where nature's force shapes extraordinary wines. On its northern slopes, Tenuta delle Terre Nere captures this raw beauty with remarkable finesse, crafting wines from ancient lava flows and mineral-rich soils. The result is a style of striking purity and precision, often compared to the elegance of Burgundy, yet defined by a distinctly Mediterranean spirit.

Join us for an exclusive Tenuta delle Terre Nere wine dinner, guided by a refined five-course menu by Chef Luca. Rooted in the essence of Italian cuisine, each course is a delicate expression of signature flavors, thoughtfully crafted to reflect both tradition and quiet innovation. With a focus on authenticity and balance, the menu unfolds with understated elegance, allowing each element to shine in harmony with the wines of Mount Etna. At the heart of the evening is San Lorenzo, named Top Italian Wine of the Year 2025 by James Suckling, a luminous expression of this extraordinary volcanic land.

Exclusively at Opera, Saturday, 24 April 2026 from 6:30 PM.

A DAY IN THE MEKONG DELTA

Leave the busy streets of Ho Chi Minh City and drive deep into the Mekong Delta on this Cai Be day tour. First, arrive at Cai Thia Village for a leisure cycling trip (4 km) to explore the famous mango village. Visit Mrs. Nam's family for a chat and see how the family has been making rice paper for generations. Continue cycling around the fruit gardens and admire the tranquility of the village, observe daily life, and see the traditional houses of the Mekong Delta before visiting a local home to make Banh Tieu, a sweet fried rice cake, with the family. Enjoy the cake with some hot tea while talking to the family members. Then return to the village and board the boat to Cai Be.

Enjoy a Traditional Vietnamese Lunch on Board

Upon arriving in Cai Be, continue to Tan Phong Fruit Island. Take a local rowboat through the narrow canals around the island, appreciating the tranquility and lush landscapes of this part of the Delta. Take another leisure cycling trip (4 km) around the village to see how people use coconut leaves for cottage roofs and weave dried water hyacinth to make various products: baskets, bags, hats, wallets, shoes, and more. Stop at local cottage workshops to see how they make coconut candy, popped rice, popcorn, and rice wine. As the sun dips lower in the sky, it is time to return to Cai Be and Ho Chi Minh City.
