2023 | Pieropan, 'Calvarinho' Soave | Veneto, Italy

Named after the "small ordeal" of working its challenging volcanic soils, the 2023 Calvarino is a vibrant, organic Soave Classico that balances a ripping acidity with an elegant, silky texture. This complex mid-weight white offers an intense bouquet of honey and stone fruits, finishing with salty mineral nuances that make it both a critical darling and an effortless crowd-pleaser.

2023 | Giuseppe Quintarelli, Bianco Secco | Veneto, Italy

The 2023 Bianco Secco is a refined and captivating blend of local and international grapes, offering a layered profile of green melon, lime zest, and salty minerals that punch well above its class. By combining traditional Veneto varieties with a touch of air-dried fruit, the Quintarelli family has crafted a bright, textured white that balances elegant tension with a long, fresh finish.

2023 | Domaines Leflaive, Pouilly-Fuissé | Bourgogne, France

Drawing on 12 distinct parcels and Puligny-level craftsmanship, the Domaines Leflaive Pouilly-Fuissé 2023 delivers exceptional geological depth and finesse. The 2023 vintage is beautifully concentrated and structured, benefiting from 18 months of precise aging to achieve a perfect, vibrant balance.

2019 | Elvio Cogno, Barolo Cascina Nuova | Piemonte, Italy

Young vines can make a great Barolo that can be enjoyed without having to wait 20 years. This is what Valter wanted to prove, and it has been achieved with brio. This textbook Barolo shows intense aromas of rose petals and presents itself in a delicate tannin structure true to its origins.

2023 | Pressing Matters, 'R139' Riesling | Tasmania, Australia

Hailing from Tasmania's Coal River Valley, the 2023 R139 is a luscious Riesling defined by the estate's unique volcanic limestone soils and a cooling micro-climate that fosters deep fruit intensity and a steely acid structure. Part of a precisely calibrated range where the name clearly denotes its residual sugar level, this vintage captures the vineyard's "high-density, high-quality" philosophy through a vibrant, crystalline expression of late-ripened fruit.
