Roku

Distilled Perfection from the Land of the Rising Sun

Tasting Notes:

With a delicate, sweet aroma and a flavor profile touched by cherry blossom and green tea, Roku gin is a delightful fusion of East and West. Its harmonious finish, imbued with yuzu and sansho pepper, invites the senses on a uniquely Japanese journey

Interesting Fact:

The name 'Roku' translates as 'six' in Japanese - a tribute to the six Japanese botanicals that are harvested through the four seasons and meticulously crafted into this exceptional gin.

Recommended Mixer:

East Imperial Grapefruit Tonic.

RM 40

Tanqueray No. 10

An Exquisite Tribute to the Classic Citrus Style

Tasting Notes:

Tanqueray No. 10 is renowned for its sublime freshness and vibrant citrus heart. Undertones of chamomile flowers and a hint of juniper provide balance to the charismatic grapefruit zest and lime notes that shine through.

Interesting Fact:

Tanqueray No. 10 is named after the still number of its origin, and it's the first gin to be distilled with fresh citrus fruits.

Recommended Mixer:

East Imperial Old World Tonic

Caorunn

Scotland's Answer to Artisanal Gin

Tasting Notes:

Caorunn is a dry and crisp, aromatic taste adventure with a long dry finish. Notes of floral and citrus are beautifully balanced by the spiciness of coriander, bringing an invigorating Highland breeze with each sip.

Interesting Fact:

Caorunn, pronounced 'ka-roon', is the Gaelic word for rowanberry - a Celtic botanical that forms the very soul of this gin.

Recommended Mixer:

San Pellegrino Tonic Oakwood

The Bulldog Gin

A Bold Spirit with an International Flair

Tasting Notes:

The Bulldog Gin is a balanced spirit with a smooth finish, rich with multi-layered notes of juniper, citrus, and a touch of floral lavender. Oriental notes of dragon eye, lotus leaves, and poppy make it an adventurous choice.

Interesting Fact:

Named for a symbol of British resistance, Bulldog Gin's 12 botanicals are sourced from 8 different countries, truly giving it an international character.

Recommended Mixer:

East Imperial Old World Tonic

The Botanist

The Wild Heart of Islay
Captured in a Bottle

Tasting Notes:

The Botanist is a gin of layered complexity. A progressive exploration of floral, sweet, and spicy notes, it offers an intoxicating bouquet of native Islay botanicals, harmonized with a crisp juniper backbone.

Interesting Fact: 22

The Botanist is distilled in a unique Lomond pot-still, affectionately known as "Ugly Betty", contributing to its inimitable character.

Recommended Mixer:

San Pellegrino Tonic Oakwood

Monkey 47

An Exotic Harmony
of 47 Botanicals

Tasting Notes:

Monkey 47 is a robust gin that captivates with a vibrant blend of ripe forest fruits, a gentle sweetness, tangy citrus, and a peppery spice that lingers on the palate.

Interesting Fact:

This German gin, steeped in history and tradition, gets its name from the 47 botanicals used in the blend and the 47% ABV.

Recommended Mixer:

East Imperial Grapefruit Tonic

London No. 1

Classic Elegance
in Every Drop

Tasting Notes:

London No. 1 is characterized by sublime, delicate notes of juniper berries, followed by a punch of citrus and spice from bergamot and almond. This gin boasts a lingering finish, with a subtle hint of balsamic.

Interesting Fact:

London No. 1 gets its striking turquoise hue naturally from gardenia flowers. This gin is a distilled homage to London's rich gin history.
