Why Saint Lucian Food Tastes Better When It's Made the Way You Remember

There's a taste that lives in your memory long after you've left the island. It's not written down in a recipe or measured with a spoon. It lives in the smell of seasoning hitting a hot pot, in the sound of someone saying "lè sa fini, e ké bon" (when it's done, it'll be good), and in the understanding that good food cannot be rushed.

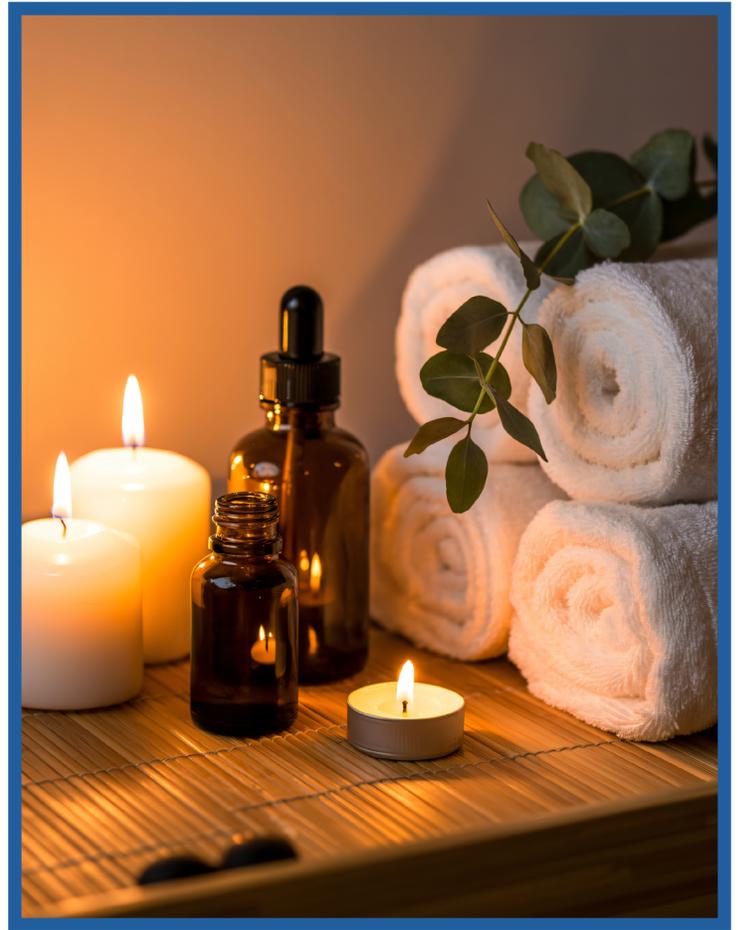

For many Saint Lucians living abroad, this is the taste they miss most. Bouillon so rich you can taste the time that went into it. Christmas ham glazed just right. Saltfish and green figs that taste like Saturday morning. And no matter how close overseas versions come, food made the way you remember always tastes better. Read full blog here.

Looking ahead, Curlis hopes to mentor young people, especially those just stepping into the workforce, helping them develop a passion for hospitality and grow in their careers. With her dedication, warmth, and creativity, there’s no doubt she will continue to make a lasting impact at Bay Gardens.

Recipe - Pecan Nut Pie

Yield: 1 × 9-inch pie (8–10 portions)

INSTRUCTIONS

INGREDIENTS:

For the Pie Crust:

- 10 oz (0.6 lb / 2 ¼ cups) all-purpose flour
- 8 oz (0.5 lb / 1 cup) unsalted butter, cold and cubed
- 1 oz (2 tbsp) sugar
- ½ tsp salt
- 3 oz (6 tbsp, approx.) ice water

For the Filling:

- 3 large eggs (6 oz total)
- 6 oz (¾ cup, packed) brown sugar
- 4 oz (½ cup) granulated sugar
- 8 oz (1 cup) light or golden corn syrup
- 4 oz (½ cup / 1 stick) melted butter
- 1 tbsp vanilla extract
- 1 tbsp dark rum (optional, for Caribbean flair)
- 8 oz (2 cups) pecan halves
- ¼ tsp salt

Preparation :

Make the Pie Crust

1. Combine flour, sugar, and salt in a mixing bowl.
2. Cut in cold butter until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs.
3. Add ice water gradually and mix just until dough comes together.
4. Flatten into a disc, wrap, and chill for at least 30 minutes.
5. Roll out to 1/8 inch thick and line a 9-inch pie pan. Trim and flute the edges.
6. Chill again for 10–15 minutes before baking.

Prepare the Filling

1. In a bowl, whisk together eggs, both sugars, and salt.
2. Add corn syrup, melted butter, vanilla, and rum (if using).
3. Fold in the pecans — reserve a few for decorating the top.

Assemble and Bake

1. Pour filling into the chilled pie shell.
2. Arrange remaining pecans on top for presentation.
3. Bake at 350°F (175°C) for 45–50 minutes, until the center is just set but slightly wobbly.
4. Cool completely before slicing.

Manager’s night with cocktails and buffet dinner with live music was memorable. Would highly recommend to anyone looking for an enjoyable and affordable stay in St. Lucia.

BAY GARDENS MARINA HAVEN “Peaceful”

Reviewed by Nicole R (January 2026)

This is a great place to come if you are trying to just relax and not looking to be near a big crowd. It’s a small inn with some staff that go above and beyond like Arnold the bartender even though he is always doing more than that and the same for Ms.Marshall. She helped me with anything that I needed while I was there and knew me by name. Everything you need is close by, and you have access to the other bay gardens hotel and resort at no cost and a shuttle is provided.
