PARK HYATT
MASTERS OF FOOD & WINE

LE PRISTINE TOKYO IN SAIGON

Renowned for its precision and meticulous attention to detail, and as a source of inspiration for culinary masters around the world, Tokyo marks the first step in Asia for master chef Sergio Herman with Le Pristine Tokyo. Having once held three prestigious Michelin stars, the talented chef introduces a new culinary style that brings together the essence of Italian cuisine, the flavors of the Zeeland coast in the Netherlands, and the purity and discipline of Japanese ingredients.

Guided by five pillars: food, fashion, design, art, and music, Le Pristine Tokyo presents a contemporary spirit, where bold flavors are balanced by freshness and harmony, alongside a deep love for seafood. Altogether, it creates a culinary journey that is both expressive and precise, celebrating Sergio Herman's distinctive imprint on contemporary gastronomy – exclusively at Hotel Toranomon Hills.

This May, Masters of Food and Wine, an inspired celebration of gastronomy and artisanal craft, unveils an exclusive collaboration between Park Hyatt Saigon and Hotel Toranomon Hills. Within the intimate elegance of Opera, guests are invited to embark on a refined evening where Chef Luca Capellato joins forces with Executive Chef Dennis Kuiper of Le Pristine Tokyo to present a thoughtfully composed five-course menu.

Each creation unfolds as a dialogue of cultures – from laminato Hokkaido scallop with daikon, caviar, tomato dashi, to the carciofi alla romana enriched with Nagasaki bottarga; from red king crab ravioli infused with kombu, to the tender of Japanese Akaushi beef elevated by Sarawak black pepper, culminating in a contemporary “Green Minestrone” of Tsuji farm tomato and Hamaguri clams. The journey is further elevated by a curated wine pairing recommended by head sommeliers Momoka Mitake and Tran Duc Thanh.

Beyond the evening, the spirit of Le Pristine Tokyo continues to resonate, as its contemporary creations grace our renowned Sunday brunch, offering a lasting impression for those drawn to discovery, creativity, and the art of casual fine dining at the Park.

A HALF DAY IN HO CHI MINH CITY

Discover a city shaped by centuries of change, where each chapter of history leaves its quiet imprint on the present day. Once a Khmer fishing village known as Prey Nokor, “the Forest Kingdom”, Ho Chi Minh City has journeyed through centuries of transformation, from imperial Saigon to the dynamic metropolis it is today.

Your journey begins with a visit to two of the city’s most recognizable landmarks: Notre-Dame Cathedral and the Central Post Office. Built in the late 19th century, these structures reflect an important period in the city’s past, offering insight into its architectural and historical layers.

Continue along Dong Khoi Street to the Opera House, a prominent cultural site that has served many roles over time, including during the Vietnam War. From there, visit the Independence Palace, once the headquarters of the South Vietnamese government. It was here, on 30 April 1975, that a pivotal moment marked the end of the war. Inside, the preserved rooms, from the command center to formal reception areas, offer a closer look at this significant bygone era.
