Wake Up and Walk

There's no better place in London for enjoying all the outdoors has to offer than Richmond. From parks to riverside, we've got a walking route for everyone to enjoy. If you don't have long, pop over to Terrace Gardens and soak up the riverside view or head to Richmond Park for a short stroll. If you have a bit more time, why not try one of our recommended walks.

Three of our favourite walks...

Richmond to Hampton Court

Start in Richmond town centre and head down the riverside to historical Hampton Court. Why not stop for a drink at one of the many cute pubs along the way.

Distance: 7 miles

Time: 2 hours 20 minutes

The Tamsin Trail

The Tamsin Trail is a beautifully scenic walk around Richmond Park. Grab a coffee from 144 On The Hill before heading out to the park and enjoying a bit of deer spotting.

Distance: 7 miles

Time: 2 hours 20 minutes

Richmond Riverside Trail

Get the ultimate tour of Richmond with this walk through the town centre and along the riverside. Explore Richmond's cute independent shops and cafes along the way.

Distance: 5 miles

Time: 1 hour 40 minutes

More sights to stroll to...

Don't forget to check out Kew Gardens, Ham House, Petersham Nurseries and many more beautiful spots in the area, from historical highlights to stunning landscapes.
