MAASAI VILLAGE VISIT*

The Maasai, known as one of the world’s most famous traditional cultures, have a rich heritage that reflects their nomadic lifestyle. Visiting the Manyatta, a circular encampment of long, low, rounded houses constructed by daubing cattle dung over a framework of sticks, offers insight into how the Maasai thrived in the African wilderness.

	Time
Daily	Available on request

STAR LIT ROMANTIC DINNER*

Tucked away in the majestic Maasai Mara is a secret and enchanting location that sets the scene for a memorable dining experience. The dinner is set under African skies accompanied by the sounds of nature.

BALLOON SAFARI*

Soar across the Mara as the sun is setting on the African Grasslands. A balloon safari features a birds-eye view of the 'life of the Mara' as one cycle sets and prepares for the next to begin.

Daily	Time Available on request
-------	-------------------------------------

BUSH BARBEQUE DINNER*

Indulge in the wild safari life with a lantern-lit dinner, cooked on a blazing barbecue grill and served with various salads and vegetables. To complete the experience, enjoy the traditional and culturally rich songs of the scarlet-clad Maasai dancers.

Daily	Time Available on request

OLOOLOLO ESCARPMENT HIKE EXPEDITION*

Explore the escarpment, which receives more rain than the rest of the Mara Triangle and follow the lush freshwater streams that vanish into the ground and reappear in the lower swamps. The Olololo expedition offers a distinctive combination of history and nature, from the vast grassy plains of the Mara to the routes used by German forces in WW1.

Daily	Time Available on request

MARA SUNDOWNER*

While the sun does set, the Mara's wildlife remains as active as ever. As you sip on your sundowner cocktail accompanied with a traditional Maasai welcome, hear lions and leopards roar and hunt and hyenas crackle in the bushes, with other animals awake and alert.
