THE ICONIC GENERAL POST OFFICE (GPO)

Steeped in character and elegance, The Fullerton Hotel Sydney is a luxury five-star hotel offering exquisite dining experiences, bespoke luxury and a stay to remember. Located at No. 1 Martin Place, in the heart of Sydney's financial and fashion district, The Fullerton Hotel Sydney exudes both comfort and charm, with 416 guest rooms that include contemporary sophistication from our high-rise section and the more classically inspired accommodation of the General Post Office building (Circa 1874). The GPO building has a fascinating history and holds a special place in the heart of Sydneysiders.

THE GRAND STAIRCASE

The Grand Staircase in the Sydney General Post Office (GPO) is a significant feature within the historic building, which was designed by Colonial Architect James Barnet and constructed in stages between 1866 and 1891

The GPO was one of the largest and most important public buildings constructed during the Victorian era's post-Gold Rush economic boom, symbolising the prosperity and confidence of the colony. The Grand Staircase were built to be equally grand and functional, reflecting the importance of the GPO as the hub of New South Wales' postal and communications system
