Hotel and Brasserie Spirgarten

The hotel and the Spirgarten brasserie, as well as the buildings on Lindenplatz, are owned by the Initiative

Cooperative Lindenplatz Altstetten (IGLA). The cooperative was founded on June 26, 1945, with the aim of actively influencing the design of the neighborhood. The Hotel Spirgarten and all other buildings were designed and built by the renowned architect Werner Stücheli in 1957. Stücheli also designed, among other things, the first high-rise building in Zurich in the 1950s.

The Hotel Spirgarten has 49 guest rooms, seminar and event rooms for 9 to 900 people, as well as the Spirgarten brasserie. The establishment employs around 30 staff members, currently including six apprentices in the fields of restaurant management, hotel management, and hotel communications.

We are pleased to welcome you today as guests at the Spirgarten brasserie and wish you a wonderful time with us.

Your Hotel & Brasserie Spirgarten Team.
