Full Body

FULL BODY

Lymphatic Detox & Regeneration Programme 90 mins / RM1130***

This treatment provides energy for the body to perform its cleansing functions and recover its optimal functioning. The whole body is worked, activating the path of the lymph nodes, producing a "collection effect" of toxins, which the body ends up accumulating or expelling it out.

BENEFITS

- Debloats & Depuffs
- Break Down Cellulite & Fat Cells
- Glowing Skin
- Improve Blood Circulation
- Helps with Post-Injury Swelling
- Eases Body Tension

S-DRIVE

Epigenetic & Heavy Metal Test RM755***

Hair and bulb follicles prove effective as biomarkers, accumulating information on homeostasis and epigenetics over time. This personalized, real-time data provides insights into underlying nutritional and metabolic conditions, reflecting various processes often before symptoms manifest.

The resonant information evolves with the individual's epigenetic influences, shaped by macro and micro environments. These factors include chemical toxins, air quality, nutrition, electromagnetic exposure, and mental activity. The report remains relevant for 90 days, aligning with the dynamic nature of epigenetic influences.

Proionic treatment is based on the proven CRET® system. By working at a frequency of 448kHz, three biological effects are generated: biostimulation, vascularization and hyperactivation. These processes increase cellular metabolism, blood flow and circulation, at the same time as they improve the oxygenation of tissues and cells. It also help generate new collagen fibers, detoxify the tissue and increase lymphatic drainage. At 448kHz frequency, numerous studies shows the intrinsic properties of normalization of cell function, pain management, anti-inflammatory, anti-adipogenic action and its stimulating effect on STEM CELLS.
