100 years
HOTEL ELDORADO
KELOWNA, BRITISH COLUMBIA

It all began with a visionary Countess...

On a Canadian visit in the early 1920's Countess Bubna fell in love with our valley and made it home. She was a British blue-blooded adventurer and visionary who first put down roots here with the purchase of a horse ranch. When she got word of the coming railway stop (1927) in the then fledgling town of Kelowna, she saw it as an opportune time to bring her aristocratic international friends to the valley. It was then the Countess founded our Grand Dame, the Hotel Eldorado, in 1926. A legend was born. What might have seemed like a wild idea back in '26, came from our Countess' adventurous spirit and the bravery to go to grand lengths for a great time. This is the very spirit of The El that lives on today 100 years later. Now you're part of the story.
