breakout from the norm

Training days can be intense and people need time and space to recharge and relax. Each Village Hotel has an abundance of breakout areas compared to typical venues, including our Pub & Grill and on-site Starbucks* plus outdoor spaces for a refreshing break.

You can also access our online resource hub, BrainBank, which is packed with hints and tips for a successful training session and fun activities everyone can get involved in, including morning icebreakers and afternoon energisers.

we're trained to enhance your training experience

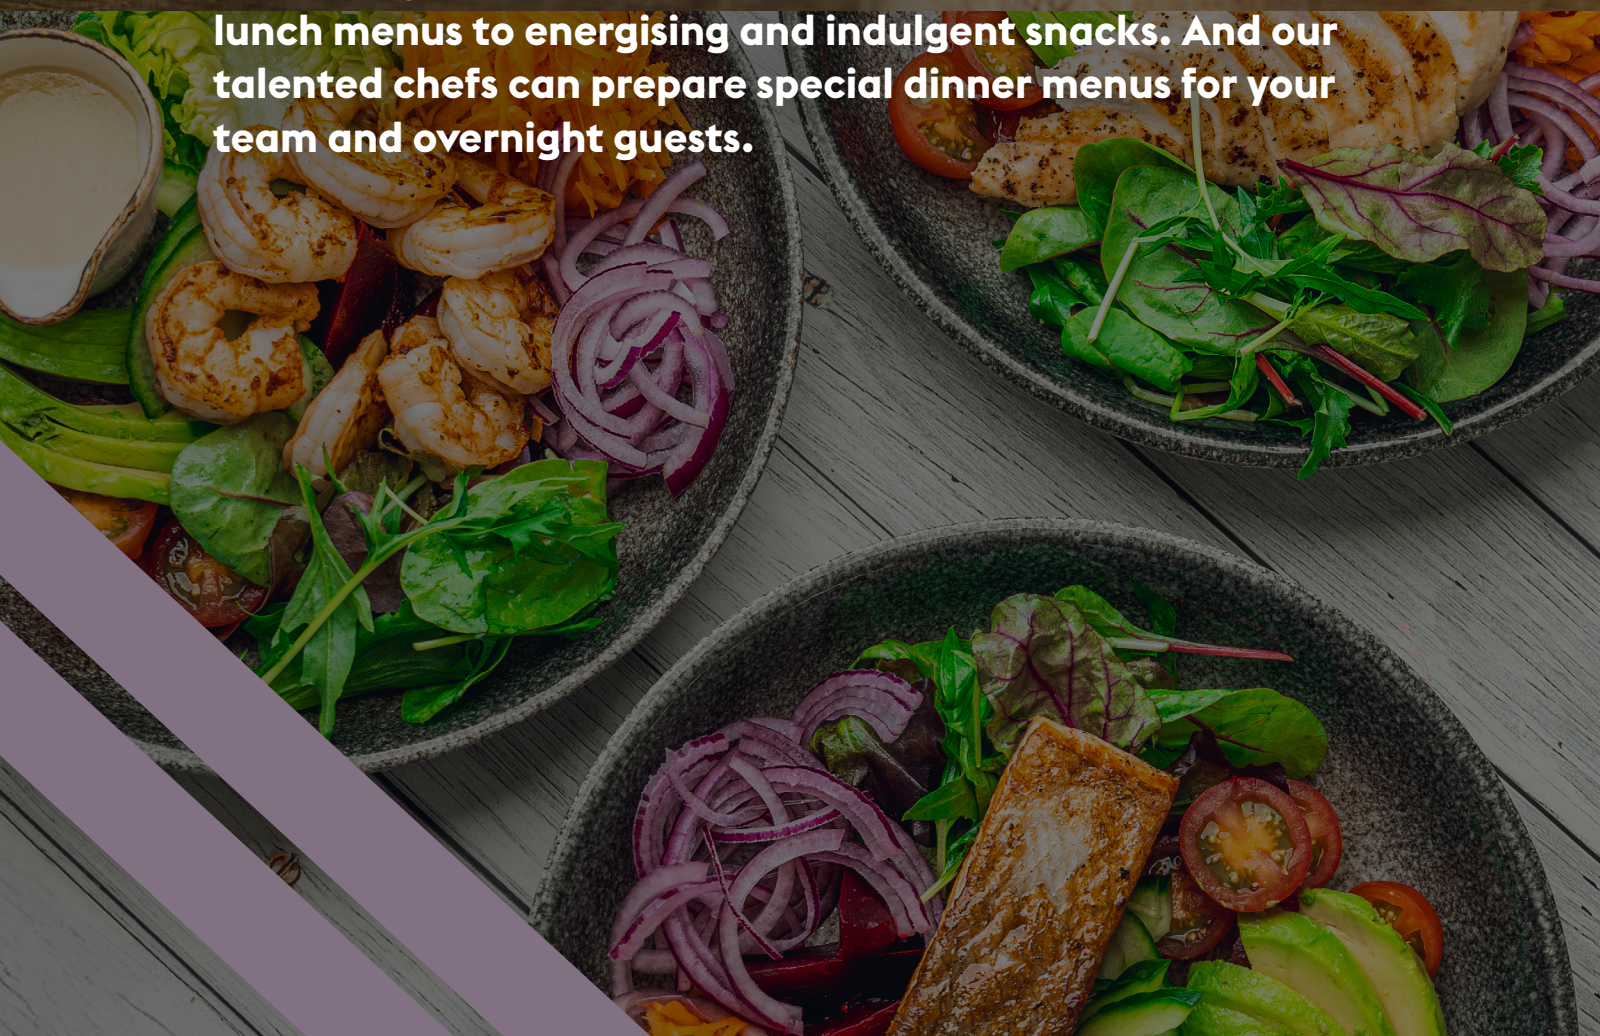

From the booking process to the moment you leave, you're in the very experienced hands of our skilled team. Starting with a great welcome experience, you'll find everything set up and ready to go, based on your specific requests and requirements. We'll walk you through your agenda for the day and will be on hand to help whenever you need us.

food glorious food

Our catering options are as inspiring as our venues, with something to suit everyone's tastes, from delicious, nutritious lunch menus to energising and indulgent snacks. And our talented chefs can prepare special dinner menus for your team and overnight guests.

add work/life balance to your agenda

To inspire and energise your delegates, Village Hotels has the space, facilities and versatility to add a range of stimulating activities and experiences to your training, development & learning days:

Energiser Icebreaker

Start your day off with a quick fire energiser with one of our qualified personal training instructors.

Health + Wellness

Access to our huge, state-of-the-art Health + Wellness Club including pool (can be arranged), group classes in our high-tech studios and squash courts.

Pub & Grill

Our Pub & Grill is the perfect place to switch off and wind down, with huge screens showing live sports, plus a menu filled with the best of British ingredients.

Explore!

All Village Hotels are within easy reach of major UK cities, landmarks and points of interest. Our on-site teams have a wealth of experience and knowledge which can support clients with arranging additional off-site activities in the local area.

creating a more sustainable future

Our mission is simple: To have a positive impact on the communities we operate in, both environmentally and socially.

We know that a more sustainable future is within reach, and we want to play our part in getting there.

We strive to be responsible members of the community, while acting as a hub for the local community where people can thrive.

To make training days more sustainable:

We've swapped flip charts for whiteboards

Our Douwe Egberts™ coffee machines serve responsibly sourced coffee

EV charging stations being rolled out across all locations

We've swapped our notepads and pens for more environmentally friendly options (available on request)
