

The Londoner Introduces Exclusive West End Theatre Experiences

Perfectly positioned just steps from Leicester Square's world-famous theatres, The Londoner is the ultimate destination for West End lovers. Guests can begin their evening with a pre-theatre Mediterranean-inspired dinner at Whitcomb's, or toast the night with post-theatre innovative cocktails and panoramic city views at 8 at The Londoner, the hotel's rooftop bar. Between shows, guests can enjoy The Residence, an exclusive guest lounge offering curated beverages, games, and rare whiskies, or The Retreat, a serene wellness floor featuring a pool, gym, sauna, superfood bar, and salon.

The Londoner elevates the theatre experience even further with six exclusive packages—Punch, The Maids, When We Are Married, Juniper Blood, Othello and All My Sons—pairing the refined comforts of the world's first super boutique hotel with tickets to star-stunned performances that are notoriously hard to secure.

Juniper Blood

By Mike Bartlett – the Olivier Award-winning playwright of King Charles III returns with a gripping world premiere. Juniper Blood explores land, family, and the volatility of extreme environmentalism, as Ruth and Lips' peaceful farm spirals into turmoil. Guests receive two tickets to this headline-making new work alongside a 15% room discount. Experiences available 26–27 September and 3–4 October 2025; book by 12 September.

Punch

By James Graham – one of Britain's most celebrated dramatists, acclaimed for Ink and This House. Following sold-out runs in Nottingham and the Old Vic, Punch brings to the stage the true, redemptive story of Jacob Dunne, whose life was changed forever by one fatal mistake. This powerful new production opens at the Apollo Theatre, just steps from The Londoner. Packages include two tickets, 15% off rooms, breakfast, and access to The Residence and The Retreat. Available 24–25 October 2025; book by 3 October 2025.

The Maids

Directed by Kip Williams – fresh from his groundbreaking reinvention of The Picture of Dorian Gray, Kip takes on Jean Genet’s provocative masterpiece The Maids. Set within the intimate Donmar Warehouse, this production promises a visceral, boundary-pushing theatrical experience. Guests will enjoy two tickets, 15% off accommodation, breakfast, and exclusive guest amenities. Available 14–15 November 2025; book by 31 October 2025.

Othello

Shakespeare’s enduring tragedy returns in one of the most anticipated productions of the season at the Theatre Royal Haymarket. With a distinguished cast including Dave Harwood, Toby Jones, Caitlin Fitzgerald and an original score by PJ Harvey, this reimagining promises to be a cultural highlight of 2026. Guests will enjoy a one-night stay at The Londoner with 15% off accommodation, premium stalls, tickets for the 9–10 January 2026 performances, and breakfast the following morning.

All My Sons

Arthur Miller's timeless exploration of morality and the American Dream is reimagined by visionary director Ivo van Hove. Starring Bryan Cranston (Breaking Bad), this star-studded revival is set to be one of the West End's most talked-about productions. Packages include accommodation with 15% off, plus two tickets for performances on 16 January and 7 February 2026. Book by 2 January 2026.

When We Are Married

A J.B. Priestley classic, this uproarious comedy turns a silver wedding anniversary into delightful mayhem. Guests receive two tickets to When We Are Married, 15% off their stay, breakfast, and full access to The Londoner's signature facilities. Performances are on 30th and 31st January 2026 at the Donmar Warehouse; book by 16th January 2026.
