Hailing from the steep, iconic slopes of Côte-Rôtie in the Northern Rhône, Stéphane Ogier represents the pinnacle of modern winemaking steeped in centuries-old tradition. As the 7th generation of his family to tend these legendary vineyards, Stéphane took the reins of the family domaine in 1997, bringing fresh vision and unparalleled precision to his craft.

Neighboring the prestigious appellations of Condrieu and Côte-Rôtie, the historic vineyards of Seyssuel have been revived by a handful of artisan winemakers. Stéphane planted 3.5 hectares here in 2001, recognizing its exceptional potential and crafting wines that rival the best of Côte-Rôtie.

Since crafting his first vintages in the 1970s at just 20 years old, Marcel Richaud has been a pioneering figure in the Southern Rhône, showcasing the beauty of Côtes du Rhône Crus through minimal intervention and a steadfast commitment to biodynamic farming.

The historic village of Cairanne, where wines have been made since the 12th century, achieved Cru status in 2016, solidifying its reputation for exceptional terroir. Richaud's iconic cuvée, L'Ebrescade, exemplifies the powerful expression of Cairanne, crafted from the village's oldest vines and extremely low yields. With a high proportion of Mourvèdre, this wine captures the depth, complexity, and authenticity that have made Domaine Richaud a benchmark for the appellation.

Nicolas Potel hails from a distinguished lineage of Burgundy winemakers. In 2005, Nicolas founded Domaine de Bellene, rooted in the heart of the Côte d'Or, by acquiring a remarkable collection of old vines from some of the most prestigious plots. These exceptional terroirs, home to vines aged 50 to over 110 years, are meticulously cultivated using 100% biodynamic practices.

With high-density planting and extremely low yields, Potel produces wines that reflect the purity, complexity, and timeless elegance of Burgundy's finest traditions.

100% destemmed & aged 18 months in 45% new French barriques

Driven by a shared passion for crafting the most beautiful Pinot Noir, Kai Schubert and Marion Deimling founded Schubert Wines in Martinborough in 1998. Drawn to the region's cool-climate conditions and ancient riverbed soils—reminiscent of Burgundy—they recognized Martinborough's potential to produce Pinot Noir of exceptional elegance and depth.

In 2007, Schubert achieved international acclaim during a prestigious Pinot Noir blind tasting held at Berlin's famed Hotel Adlon. Their 2004 Block B Pinot Noir earned the top score of the event, tying with the legendary 1999 Musigny Grand Cru of Domaine Comte Georges de Vogüé. This milestone cemented Schubert Wines as a global contender, celebrated for its ability to rival the finest Burgundian Pinot Noirs.
