Terms and Conditions – Ski Rental: General Terms, Rules, and Rental Conditions

- The renter assumes full responsibility for the rented equipment. The rented material is intended solely for use by the customer alone, without the possibility of subletting or free transfer to others.
- The equipment is not insured against theft. In case of damage caused by normal use of the equipment, no charges will be made to the renter.
- In case of loss or theft of the rented equipment, the renter will be charged the market value of the item.
- In case of theft or loss of the rented equipment, the customer must report the incident to the local authorities without exception.
- Each renter is liable for the proper return of the equipment up to the sales value of the rented product. In case of improper use and resulting damage to the equipment without a liability agreement, repair costs according to the valid price list will be charged to the renter.
- Exchange of the rented equipment for equivalent items is possible at any time during the contract period. Upgrades to higher category items are possible with an additional charge; however, no refund will be given when exchanging for less expensive items.
- The rental fee must be paid by the day of return. The latest return time is 10:00 AM on the following day.
- If the rented equipment is not returned on the agreed return date for any reason, the lessor will automatically file a theft report against the renter on the 7th day of delay.
- No refund will be given for early return of the rented equipment.
- Refunds are only granted in cases of illness and/or accident upon presentation of a medical certificate.
- A valid rental contract is required for the mounting, repair, and adjustment of ski bindings. By signing, you agree to a professional binding adjustment according to the manufacturer's instructions and accept the regulations and rental conditions.
- A rental contract can only be concluded with an ID or credit card. The lessor is entitled to request a security deposit in the form of holding a document (passport, ID card, driver's license) or a cash deposit. The security deposit does not count as a possible purchase price for the equipment parts.
