OUR STORY

Sophia's Lounge

Sophia's Lounge opened in 2017, is named after Queen Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Strelitz.

"Sophia" Charlotte was born into the royal family of Mecklenburg-Strelitz in Northern Germany, wife of King George III, she was Queen of the United Kingdom.

The city of Charlotte, North Carolina & Mecklenburg County were named in her honor.

The Ivey's Hotel

The Ivey's Building was built in 1924 & served as the Flagship store for the J.B. Ivey & Company Department Store chain. It was designed in the neoclassical style by local architect William H. Peeps & is the only structure still standing that documents the crucial role of department stores in the emergence of Center City Charlotte as a major retail district in the early 20th century.

The Ivey's Hotel opened in 2017 with 42 rooms as the only luxury boutique hotel located in the heart of Uptown Charlotte. Today, the hotel encompasses 47 rooms on the first two floors of the historic building welcoming guests from around the world to experience the Queen City.
