Sugar Beach, A Viceroy Resort

Val Des Pitons Forbidden Beach, St. Lucia

For an indulgent, discrete, no-expense-spared vacation, there's hardly any place better than the iconic Sugar Beach, an 18th-century sugar plantation turned crowd-favorite 130-key resort tucked between a tropical rainforest and St. Lucia's only beach with white sand in the UNESCO World Heritage-listed valley of the Pitons. A handful of recently updated restaurants provide welcome sustenance at every turn, while the Rainforest Spa offers a range of treatments harnessing the nourishing ingredients of nearby volcanic springs and fertile cocoa plantations. To put it plainly, this is the commonly agreed-upon best location to lay one's head on the island, if not the whole Caribbean.
