PRESS RELEASE:

SERENA HOTELS SPONSORS KENYAN TEEN TO BOTSWANA:

Today, the Serena Hotels group is sending off Ahmed Noorani, a young talented Kenyan who is a member of the Kenyan National Table tennis junior team.

In an intimate handover ceremony held at the Nairobi Serena Hotel, an excited Ahmed Noorani, who is a Form 1 student at Moi Educational Centre High School, will be allowed to realise his dream.

On 14th of July 2024 the team will be participating in the ITTF (International Table Tennis Federation) Africa Youth Championships in Botswana. Unfortunately, due to the Kenya Table Tennis Association facing budgetary constraints, team members have had to do look for their own means to the competition. Serena Hotels has stepped in to assist Ahmed realize his dream to represent his country as he develops his skills in this sport.

The sponsorship which will take care of his travel and accommodation costs, is under one of Serena Hotels' core values of sports diplomacy. It is a highlight of the hospitality group's commitment to local communities and development, whilst highlighting what makes the brand Serena Hotels unique.
